more care for marks results. The California.

the book is that describing his results resting plotteres.

I the electing point; the elect of the A invested trip through part of the even come to an end.

Mr. Villard's John Brown.

It is an extraordinarily thorough piece of work that Dr. Oswald Garrison Villard | tory and politica. has done in his biography of "John Brown" (Houghton Mifflin Company). He has war unexplained

Dr. Villard traces the fifty-five years of to have been the object. John Brown's life before he went to Kanone with great patience. He explains his struggles and his business troubles withmed to believe that matters would have century. taken the same course ultimately if John It is a mighty entertaining collection. Brown had never stirred ties, civil and military, only did their piath will turn more quickly to volume II. being written "fifty years after." inexplicable from the story that precedes the others. raphy proves it; if ever an execution was Brown, Villa of furnishes in this book.

Views of Many Lands

Whoever has dreamed of drifting through the South Seas from isle to isle, one Money* (J. B. Lippincott Com-It was no hornet's nest stirred iv international rivalry, like Steven-. . Samoa that he landed in but a engravings. peaceful community, weaned from bloodirsiv habits and gentle as the early of the Bounty. Dr. Furness lived for and "Oliver Twist " and He describes their manners, telongings and ceremonies, particularly their penaltar currency, with the detached the student of ethnography writes pleasantly and entertainingly while his description may not add the knowledge of specialists be thoroughly enjoyed by eral reader, who will admire the excellent photographs. Dr. however, had another bit of which gives scientific value to his As he was leaving a Catholic resented him with a little book. ish grammar and vocabulary of language, the first ever printed appens to be a great bibliographiity This Dr. Furness has translated Brittany and the Bretons" (Moffat and Company) Mr. George Wharton de has managed to write an interlook on a subject about which deal has been written. His too personal experiences, in which bistory and legend fit sectiv and agreeably. His text an ry steelf without the pictures, main part of the book 1 he se over sixty in numb e the figure pictures are n the views Mr. Edward . of a nicture eque in them Notbif about these. enters the original faithfully.

it had for the benefit of Polynesian phi-

To come that describe the first of the entering of the enterin I note the newspapers cold the front on effective completelized to the semigle and in good taste. The edition he esting a great deal and each new front about their instance and also the cold continues of commercial and material social material and management of head by limit excites apprecia. We imper continue on first property and contact to the fact that its own Southward Steam apparently goden from crossive accounted in antialogues, district regular recently consequent, with There are many here said there a story. To persons who will wish to have the record surprisent with Africa these notes will Charles Seritage's Same properties of the computer of the companion of the computer of the com are corp good. She has enought to a VIII. containing "The hefore he reaches the end."

In congo at the congo at the congo at the region of his has congo the containing "The hefore he reaches the end."

In congo at the congo at the congo at the congo at his has congo at his feeling to the congo and has from the congo at the congo at his feeling to the congo at the con the discredited claims of many rears hack now, his memory has and he does not trouble to explain grown dies or it may be he chooses to - feature that have less rest in his lie discreet, for the remarks about flegs-If the coppers have been use top are congularly converse. He also not god approved by computest seems to favor the fiverpool stracks the deports that enflowe for him on the Free State administration. There his reaction. So far as incident is much that ethnographists will enture cornect the more interesting part to his tools and many uncausal and inter-out on the one to the pole and of Balton peninsula is the foundation of Me sturn is one of encountry marches. Blair Jacket's 'The Land of the Tarnet are much allke. At the pole the Turke' il. C. Page and Companys. Its rader is more interested in Peary than chief interest is the demonstration of the the geographical paradores that ease with which the journey can be made. There is some standards "history," many uple as the story is it gives to hint hasty description, and there are some f the egertions, the privations and the good pictures. The author went from Butgrat of the men who engaged in the expedi-That the narrator almost takes for from Serajevo to the coast and Ragues granted. A great feat has been carried and made the lovely journey from Ragues m a shipshape manner, the pole has along the Dalmatian shore to Figme and toon reached and it is to be hoped that the Triesto. Attractive as the trip was rising of life to attain high latitudes will the opportunities for observing Turks, borders enclose the pages. These are hearts at first eight. The story is residently tarned or untarned, must have been slight and the time was hardly sufficient to give Servian, Bulgarian and Montenegrin his-

The "Rambles in Spain," by Dr. John D. Fitz-Gerald (Thomas Y. Crowell and Comgathered together all the material, written | pany |, was planned first for the ediffication | t to the reader's judgment, sparing neither guide book with a commentary, which It was work that should may aid travellers, but which would be have been done, that will give historians more valuable and entertaining if the on either side ground for reflection, but author had recorded his own impressions that leaves the influence the John Brown instead of quoting those of other writers. epigode had on the North during the civil There are many pictures from photographs, quantity rather than quality seem

Channey Mitchell Bepew

No complete collection of the uttertrying to shield him from blame. He ances of the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew tells the story of the fight in Kansas with can ever be made. Though his voice has like impartiality, condemning him for his not been heard often in public of late, wrongful acts, perhaps giving less weight the time when no New York or Yale occathan he should to what could be said in his gion was perfect without his presence behalf. He demonstrates that Brown and speech runs back beyond memory. had picked out Harper's Ferry as the place In the eight volumes of his 'Orations, where something must be done long before Addresses and Speeches," edited by his be planned his raid. He spares no detail classmate. John Denison Champlin (priof the incompetent, senseless, miserable vately printed by Austin and Lipscomb, actions after Harper's Ferry was attacked. New York), the earliest date we find is he explains and justifies much that was 1875, and the vast majority of the speeches by Brown's opponents, he seems in- printed were delivered in the last quarter for Senator Depew has spoken on a great A foreigner reading this evidence would variety of subjects; he has often been e justified in regarding Brown as an in- serious, and more often an arrusing after sane fanatic; even the negroes he wished dinner speaker. His addresses are classito free fled from him in terror; the authori. fled by the editor, and we imagine readers duty. This comes from the biography "Banquet and Dinner Speeches"; volume Dr. III., which contains his birthday replies Villard quotes many expressions of North- at the Montauk Club dinners, and volume ern opinion after the execution; they seem V, with his college addresses, than to

The facts could not stand in the The editor supplies a brief biographical through the North, nor could they explain by some friend of Mr. Depew's. These the savage earnestness of the refrain include his rival, Gen. Horace Porter: wishes to do her share in making the in "The Strange Case of Eleanor Cuyler His soul goes marching on." If ever a his colleagues, Senator Lodge and Senaman was legally and justly executed it for Beveridge; former Presidents Timothy turns to sociological work. Unfortuas John Brown, and Dr. Villard's biog- Dwight and Andrew D. White, Mr. Justice of the facts in the case, however, than Dr. handsomely printed, and bound in red Spanish leather.

A New Edition of Dickens.

from civilization and the need of two years off, his English publishers, in fiction, who is rather dreary. There from the "Bull Pen" of Cripple Creek to ing on tropical fruits and con- Chapman and Hall, are issuing a "Cente- is a waiting lover, whose virtues must preach the gospel of brotherly love to sorting with the amiable children of nary edition" of his works, to be completed be taken for granted. But it is of no his aged father who was a Federal Judge nature described by the first navigators. in 1912. There will be thirty-six volumes use to pick out defects; there are many to the woman whom he had once be envy Dr William Henry Furness, in all and the description of those conthird of the name, his long sojourn in the taining miscellaneous matter indicates liked and will be talked about regardless musical success and indifferently to all is and of Yap, westernmost of the Caroline that everything that can be attributed of them all. which he describes in "The Island safely to Dickens's pen will be included by Boz" in two volumes, "American touch is light, delicate and sure; he wastes him "abel"ans, who charmed the mutineers Notes" and "Pictures from Italy" in one, no words and transforms commonplace among the natives and found tive selection with which to introduce to his models. The story of the Cuban immunicative. They call their a new edition and one not justified chrono- boy is pretty good Manpassant. Aside to conserve the forests against a rascally logically. The Cruikshank pictures seem from these artistic qualities the stories lumberman keep him busy during a sum

BURNING

DAYLIGHT

The testimer daurge StreetHit.

poetraits are good and well chosen.

The Amelent Warmer Hitserated.

An alaborately illustrated and deen- story. rated holiday edition of Coleridge's "The linked in small folio form by Thomas Y. artistic and tasteful.

authority to the author's remarks on well executed, but the artist hardly seems impressions of British society it gives are to have grasped the spirit of the poem They are very pretty pictures. We profer the drawings large and small. in black and white, which are more virile. and oral, that he could find, and presents of Chautauqua students. It is a sort of and dresd. It makes a very handsome of Pook's Hill' series indicates that Rudtale of British empire as he chooses to graphs of the play see it. Children will like them, oven if have the old time ring and dash; they do not sound wholly true, however. They leave the hearers puzzled as to what Mr. Kipling is hurrahing about.

The book is called 'Rewards and Fairies" and appears in two forms. One, which any one may buy, is published by country is greater than their sympathy. Doubleday, Page and Company. The other forms volume XXV of the handlish. When will Mr. Kipling give up the Fisher and Arthur 1. Keller. direction of the British empire's affairs

Some New Fiction.

Anne Kempburn, Truthseeker" by Marliterature. As a work of fiction it has visited the White House, secured th of Jane Eyre; his force, however, is wasted progress of romance. and his melodramatic love story is de-To mark the hundreth anniversary of ficient in probability. We meet a violent Company) by Charles Tenney Jackson the birth of Charles Dickens, which is labor agitator, like others we have met is the history of a murderer who returned

Not the most attrac- material. In the latter he comes close

The

NEW NOVEL

by

JACK LONDON

Author of "The Call of the Wild," "The Sea Wolf," "White Fang,"

"Martin Eden," etc. Cloth $1.50.

Mr. LONDON'S new novel is one of his strongest. It opens among the scenes of his best books-in the frozen North. Its chief character is original, powerful, magnetic with force of a man who by primitive animal strength wins in the fight with the harshest aspects of nature. Later the scenes shift to the great cities and the same man is seen still fighting, but with weapons made sharp by the latest achievement of civilization. And there he meets the one force against which he may not stand—the love of a woman who, as the hero said, cost him thirty millions and was the cheap-moderate means who wish to have their he will some tire of charming how sell conservation retires the rentement The Therty Print (Print) is a stronge for the print interesting form of another to and give the object of and give the object of the stronge form the form the form of the stronge of the Hoten With the High Hand timege. The equipme collection of fairy takes If Doren Company New Yorks is a rose- of all countries made a few years ago The beautiful "Memorial" edition of ing farce in which all probability is east. for Sate thoughts Wiggin and York April. The Works of George Mountiels" which freed to fire. The stranging of the inacts logic free is with the Paley fing respectively free, the assumence is of value; others will be in danger of Charles Sertings due on management of the in continue of Charles Sertings due on management of the in continue of the incident of th > comprise chiefly gartierings of his lesser section. There are his closely printe-The type and page are pleasing and the will admire the drawing of many miner college excesses and only with a catalogue illustrations, arong which are many characters they will get the 'atmosphere' of the wedding presents that arrive > Rime of the Ancient Mariner is puls reader will become interested in the heroine of Y P. Hutchinson a "Captain Crowell and Company. The artist is Willy Forcerourt. Widow. (Longmans, Green. Pogany. The test is printed in black letter and Company. He may gioss at the key as an enthusiastic admirer of the west with illuminated initials, title page and to the mystery that envelope her but cansubtitles are illuminated, and decorated not dream of the havor she plays on male able; there is a rather victous portrait The pictures in color are fanciful and of a cattish female that is good, but the strange and half the story is left unexplained.

> An amusing skit on doctors by the late O. Henry, "Let Me Feel Your Pulse," is and the loquacious rubber doil on a jourand have the requisite touch of mystery published separately, with capital illustrations by W. W. Fawcett, by Doubleday.

A new edition is published by Longthey do not wholly understand them, and mans. Green and Company of two volumes their elders will too. The verses that of excellent sketches of country and sportaccompany them, two pieces to a story, ing life in Ireland by two ladies, E. C. Somerville and Martin Ross, illustrated by the former, "All on the Irish Shore" and fun in describing the condition of the of her parents dramatization, "Salomy Jane," is pubsome subscription edition of "The Writ- lished in holiday attire by the Houghton of and return to his own art of story telling? famous as a captain of finance and : master of Wall Street, took a Broadway A new story by the author of "Christo-pher Hibbault, Roadmaker," will attract was engaged in international high finance will detract from its usefulness to others and please the readers of the earlier tale. which brought England and Russia to the brink of war. Possibly his daughter guerite Bryant (Houghton Mifflin Com- was kidnapped by opposing finincial pany) is a notable addition to this year's interests. At all events Mortimer Cuyles many faults, but it has also the charm of the President, and Wotsirb, greatest of the first book and the same power of all detectives, whose name spelled face of the wave of indignation that swept sketch; each volume has an introduction of holding the reader's attention. It backward is Bristow took the case. His tells the story of a levelheaded girl who solution was complete. The story is told world better and, as is too often the case, (Dodd, Mead & Company), by Kingsland nately for the story she becomes entangled. The hardships of the Yukon pioneer former Postmaster-General in the labor problem and comes out of the routine of the missionary to the itic and ill advised it was his, as the Thomas L. James, and the Vice-President it apparently with as confused notions indians of this remote Alaskan land, and war proved. There are greater of the United States, James S. Sherman, as the reader will have. She meets Christhe romance made possible by the arrival things in history than real facts some. The volumes are illustrated with photo-topher and his people, however, and en- of a beautiful girl, who with an invalid times, and the John Brown fever was one. gravure portraits of Mr. Depew and ters the serene sphere in which they father sought a missing brother, are could ask for a clearer statement many eminent Americans. They are abide. We meet the masterful man described in The Frontiersman' (George whom British women novelists have H. Doran Company, by H. A. Cody held up to admiration since the days A lynching and a flood serve to help the

"My Brother's Keeper" (Bobbs-Merrill of them, but the book will be read and friended, educated and started toward others within hearing. During several In "The Spread Eagle and Other Sto- months he did good as viciously as was in them. The price is low; the illustrations ries" (Charles Scribner's Sons) Mr. Gouver- possible and encouraged virtue by making include all the original ones reproduced neur Morris proves that he has become it hideous. Ultimately he lost his life in in process from good examples of the old master of the short story. In the baker's an attempt to save a Polish dynamiter dozen he offers most are humorous and who had blown up a few policemen and Four volumes are before us: "Sketches some are dramatic. In the former his who rewarded his rescuer by stabbing to the Farattones and Peace to have tour entarged in reproduction; are extremely entertaining. It is stronge mor constitut in Science in The Young ters. Print and the storage. He taken this makes them intresting though some that he should have selected as chimer Firestor." If Tape they thereas there arriving the Stallars one greaters, delicency is trust. The page is fairly attract to the trust in the inperior amortist and for the experience amortisting to the > "Lord Common and His Amints," the Bonner It is a minute study of character will appreciate the simplicity and are of reactive will have the exhausted part of meditie class life in a small for work. It is the right want of fatry Moreofith's writings. The nine volumes manufacturing town, written with all the book to give to any roungstone who may to come, though they will be interesting deliberation, and much of the rambling to still interesting modern education. for the sovetime they may contain, will and of the charm too, of Mr. De Morgan work, posens, about stories, ossure and pages to the moved and at the end Mr. tauls from its completeness this cition hereing a side of the story is another s the most dignified and attractive is novel. The readers will like the here, which Meredith's books have appeared. with his successive disappointments they proprietly begins with a calendar of

> > Despite a clumbily comic landlady the Page and Company Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin's entertain-Another batch of stories of the "Puck after a career as a "best seller" and a succemful adaptation to the stage, is issued yard Kipling is only slumbering. Some in a new edition by the Houghton Mifflin of the stories are pretty good; all tell the Company with illustrations from photo-

A Bret Harte story which has endured

The strenuous efforts of a young man

BURNING

DAYLIGHT

The college experiences of the girls this are already well known to the readers Beamost promises to go back and tell the linerated by Katharine Buth fills in the "Wide twale Girts at Cuttoge" Little, Brown and Company: The history apof the place and the people, but at the end promptly by after commencement, they will perhaps not feel ears that the "To the "Janey Cannok Series" | . To the "Janey Carried Series" Emily they will perhaps not real sure that the Forguson has added a new volume in author really believes in his horn or his fancy Cannels in the West* (Cannell and Company) Janey's west in the Canadian northwest and her impressions of frontier life on the Sankatcheway are vivid and interesting. Not unnaturally she ends

> tary weekling of a favorite teacher are only a few of the exciting incidents depany), which will be readily recognized as a sequel to "The tirrls at Fairmount" the same author.

The adventures of Mollie, her father ney through Europe are set forth by John Kendrick Bangs in 'Mollie and the Unwisseman Abroad* (J. B. Lippincott Company. The voyages made on the ocean liner Digestic and the tale of a European adventure seems small before the thoroughly contemporary chapters upon the experience at the customs gate.

In 'Hester's Counterpart' Lothrop Lee and Shepard Company) Jean K Baird has confributed a second volume to the Hester series. This is the story of a stray girl, adopted by a kindly woman who presently becomes a pupil in a semi nary where she finds a roommate not only congenial, but by curious chance Some Irish Yesterdays." They will be resembling her in appearance. After read with more pleasure by English than quarrels and separation the whole riddle by Irish readers, for the authors' sense of is explained and Hester learns the story

"One Branch of the Booth Family! systely printed, New York) Mr. Charles ngs in Prose and Verse of Rudyard Kip- Miffin Company, with descrative borders Edwin Booth has traced his descent from " which Charles Scribner's Sons pub- in tint and illustrations by Harrison a hundred Messachusetts colonists. He has taken a course, unusual among gene-The daughter of Mortimer Cuyler, alogists, of beginning with his first ancesters and describing each family till it unites with another. The key would car one summer afternoon and disap- be a genealogical tree which is not pro-

Continued on Tenth Page

MAARTEN

Has just written a wonderful story of Holland. veritable Dutch "SCARLET LETTER" Now Ready. Ask for: HARMEN POLS me $1.25 net Postage 186.

WIND ALONG THE WASTE

ARIS APACHE ROMANCE By MAUDE ANNESLEY. Author of "The Wine of Life,"

Door of Darkness."

12me 81.50.
Capitally drawn pictures of Parisian low life and iff types, thrilling adventures, and the whole conception so forcible that one can hardly get on fast enough." Pail Mail Gasette.

John Lane Company, New York

A New Harold Bell Wright Book Uncrowned King

anything previously done by the author, but it is distinctively a Harold Bell Wright book. It is a beautiful piece of literary work, that is unquestionably, the expression of inspiration. It appeals to every-thing that is true, noble and wholesome within us, and we feel that the author has given us in this volume, an insight of the emple of truth in our own lives.

Frontispiece and Ten Illustrations in Color and Tint, and Cover Design drawn by John Rea Neill. Bound in Cloth, Stamped in Gold.

Over 100 pages. 16ms. (Size 4% x7.) Price, Net 75 Cents Other Books by Mr. Wright

The HIS GREATEST NOVEL 180,000. COPTES SOLD Calling of Dan Matthews

Illustrations in Color by Keller 12mo. Cloth, $1.50 The Shepherdof the Hills | Bound uniform with That Printer of Udel's | above, Each, $1.50

Sold by All Booksellers THE BOOK SUPPLY COMPANY, Publishers 220-222 Monroe Street, Chicago

MOLIERE,

His Life and His Work O SHAMBER SATERESS Professor of

Professor Matthews presents the most complete, masterly and tells-In tringraphy in fingitule of the great dramation. He some furth this funds of Minitere's life appropert of all agends that have gathefire about tions, and traces carefully his dereligionent sa dismatlat, making it plain how cautionaly be advanced to his art, and how showly reactive title full expansion of his powers. At the same time he gives a stellaing pleture of the periodiwhich Mollors itved and of hisrein-

Hibsatrated, too. 605 649 not Postpand $5.79.

France Under the Republic

JEAN CHARLEMAGNE BRACK in Vassar College,

A rigorous, comprehensive, interesting and thoroughly documented account of the progress and development of the French nation under the present Republic, giving favorable and unfavorable which the nation is facing to-day. A large part of the book is devoted to the contest between Church and State.

$1.80 net. Postpaid $1.65.

Popular Law . Making

PREDERIC J. STIMSON. University essor on Comparative Legislation at Maryard University

An able and brilliant study of the tendencies of English and American legislation, showing their growth from the beginning, with a lucid exposition of legislative conditions to-day.

Sro. 92 50 net. Postpaid $2.74.

The Town Down the River

BOOK OF POEMS. By EDWIN AR-LINGTON ROBINSON.

poems, now first collected, by the author of that remarkable volume. "The Children of the Night," published a few years ago. 12mo. 81 25 net. Postpaid $1.35

This volume is made up of nev

Narratives of Early Maryland

A new volume of the "Original Narratiyes of Early American History" Series.

Bach illustrated. $3.00 net. Postpaid $3.30.

Peter Pan

By J. M. BARRIE. With stateen illustra-

A new edition of this classic for children, with sixteen of the celebrated illustrations by Arthur Rackman, reproduced in

$1.50 net

Charles Scribner's Sons

THE DETHRONEMENT OF THE CITY BOSS

BARN HOW THE CITIZENS HAVE OBTAINED

More Schools — Cleaner Streets Better Police and Fire Protection Uheaper Gas and Electricity and all with REDUCED TAXES. Mayor James R. Hanna, of Des Moines, erites May 21, 1910: "A clear city, compre-tensive exposition of the Des Moines or com-tage of the Company of the Des Moines or com-tage of the Company of the Co we exposition of the Des Molnes or com-tions plan of government. . Certail ters alone would give one the hest con-fou he could possibly get of the Commit Plan of City Government.

$1.20, Net; by Mell, $1.30

PSYCHIC AND OTHER NEW BOOKS The Marvels Beyond Science

By Joseph Grasset, M.D., author of "Semi-Insane and Semi-Responsible." Being a re-cord of the progress in the reduction of occult phenomena to a scientific basis; beginning with the earliest manifestations of these phe-nomena down to our own day, including Palla-dino. Svo, cioth. $1.75. net; post-paid, $2.00. The World's Childhood By Louis Albert Banks, D. D. In Dr. Banks' new volume are thirty sermons with texts taken from the first three chapters of the Book of Genesia. They are marked by the same spirit of modernity and application to present conditions that have heretofore won him many readers. $1.30, net; post-paid, $1.48.

The Day of the Country Church By Rev. J. O. Asbenhorst. His aim is to awaken public interest in the movement for greater Christian and social improvement in the rural districts of America. 12mo, cloth, $1.00, net; post-paid, $1.08.

Deminion and Power By Charles Brodie Patterson. A new edition of one of Mr. Patterson's most popular books—thoroughly revised with new chapters on meetal and physical health, psychic development, right use of the breath, self-control, etc. 12mo, cloth, $1.20, net; post-paid, $1.28. ALL BOOKSTORES, OR THE PUBLISHERS

Funk & Wagnatis Company, New York

BOOKS—All out of print books supplied, no matter on what subject; write me stating books wanted; I can get you any book ever published, when in England call and inspect my stock of 90,000 rare books, BAKER'S GREAT BOOK, SHOP, John Bright st., Birmingham, England

Autograph
Letters

of Celebrities Bought and Sold.
Send for price lists.
WALTER R. BENJAMIN,
225 Fifth Ave, Kew York.
Pub. "THE COLLECTOR," 81 a yr

By Katherine Cecil Thurston

Next Wednesday Max will be a month old, and yet in this brief time half a higherest leading newspapers have taken it up for excessive review a chorus of praise swelling across the country and echoing beyoud the ocean in the English press. Almost without exception they say the story is better than "The Masquerader" high praise indeed. "More breathless in interest, with a central situation just as strong." Mrs. Thurston has "caught the atmosphere, the gitter, the restlessness of life in these deft, pleasant pictures." One critic says the novel is "beautiful, exquisite—there is an ache in the throat in those scenes when Charpentier's music floats out on the luminous night." A remarkable thing about this love story is that the heroine is also the hero.

Dixie Hart

By Will N. Harben

Over 250,000 copies of Will N. Harben's Georgia novels have been disposed of-proof indeed that they have reached a permanent popularity. Here -just published-is Mr. Harben's latest novel, "Dixie Hart." It is the strong, sympathetic, humorous story of an optimistic Southern girl who wins in a fight against adversity. "Dixie Hart" is by far the best novel Mr. Harben has ever written. The hero is a goodnatured, shrewd young fellow who "keeps store" in a little Georgia village. Next door lives Dixie Hart, an attractive young girl who does a man's work in trying to support herself and her widowed mother.

Cumner's Son

By Sir Gilbert Parker

Here is a collection of short stories mostly set in the islands of the South Sea under British dominion. They have the indescribable atmosphere of a tropic land and the broad spirit of humanity that is born whenever the savage and the civilized are found living their lives side by side. Many of them are love stories with the unusual motives and setting of the tropics, and all are characteristic Gilbert Parker stories.

The Heritage of the Desert

By Zane Grey

"An appealing love story, pure as the far water-brooks," says one reviewer of this new novel, in which the curtain is raised on a scene hitherto unexplored in American fiction. The New York World adds this comment: "It is a strong story, rich with life and mixed with color. No man in the tale wears a collar and the women are the genuine daughters of the desert and the mountains, fit mates for their men. We are glad to recommend this fine new novel, 'The Heritage of the Desert.' "

Pan's Mountain

By Amelie Rives

A record of the heights and depths of human feeling. An English poet and a girl wholly pagan-a worshipper of Pan and of the other woodland deities-live out to an unforgettable ending their great drama of love amid the beautiful Italian Lakes. The girl is the incarnation of life and joy of love and sorrow. Only the author of "The Quick or the Dead?" could have written this story, and it is in every way worthy of her.

MARPERS HARPERS HARPERS

ed in some sort of gelat approcess ared partiares are pretty, but lack iduality of the drawings. It is seant and attractive book about v and a people that are always is and that artists never tire of forms needed advertising is d do better than to spread Mr " kotto's book, "Romantic Calinaries Scribner's Sons). The irles his readers, with the aid of encu. through the missions and a as of the Spanish occupancy, to per resque points within reach of San est necessity of life he ever indulged in.

Published by THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

64-66 Fifth Avenue, New York

BURNING DAYLIGHT